Paraguay
August 2023

Hosting some 7,463 refugees, asylum-seekers and migrants, most of them from Venezuela, UNHCR works with the Paraguayan government and its partner agency to guarantee access to territory, asylum regularization and family reunification while also providing basic goods and services in cash and in-kind assistance to forcibly displaced people. With its partners facilitates the socio-economic integration of refugees and migrants, providing seed capital for small scale businesses, providing orientation to access the labour market, and advocating with authorities and financial service providers to grant access to banking products. The National Refugee Commission (CONARE) of Paraguay has granted refugee status to Venezuelan nationals through group recognition. Due to the impact of COVID-19, the humanitarian response has been strengthened since 2020.

Results in 2022

- In 2022, UNHCR through its partner agency has provided support to 928 persons in vulnerable situations and at risk through multi-purpose cash assistance. In addition, 52 percent of the people assisted were able to obtain their identification documents and 19% of the people UNHCR serves had already had documentation before contacting the partner, the majority of them as asylum seekers and refugees as the figures indicate. Some other 1,136 were assisted with in-kind assistance to cover their basic needs, while some 46 people received livelihoods training or support.

Working with Partners

- UNHCR works in close coordination with Government counterparts, namely with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Interior, the Ministry of Labour and Social Security, the Ministry of Justice, from the multi-sectorial National Stateless and Refugee Commission (CONARE) to provide protection and seek durable solutions for refugees. UNHCR is a member of CONARE.
- “Semillas para la Democracia” is UNHCR’s partner implementing projects aimed at providing legal orientation, basic humanitarian assistance and supporting socio-economic inclusion of refugees and asylum-seekers and Venezuelan nationals.
- UNHCR works together with other UN agencies, such as OHCHR, UNFPA and IOM.
- UNHCR co-leads jointly with IOM the National Response Platform for Refugees and Migrants from Venezuela where four partners – UN, CSOs, Refugee’s and Migrants’ organizations implement the Response Plan 2023-2024 for the Southern Cone complementing Governmental capacities in main urban and border areas of the sub-region.

Main Activities

Protection & Durable Solutions

- Support the Government in the institutional strengthening of the national asylum system, through the implementation of activities in line with the 2014 Brazil Plan of Action. UNHCR and its partner in Paraguay have provided resources aimed at strengthening CONARE's technical Secretariat and promoting efficient refugee status determination procedures (RSD); and capacity building activities to ensure due process in admission, registration, eligibility interviews and RSD assessments. UNHCR technical support has contributed to the exponential increase in the rate of recognition of refugee status in Paraguay, mainly of Venezuelans.
- UNHCR has also strengthened the engagement with the Ministry of Public Defense and its Working Group on Migrants and refugees, providing technical support and advice to ensure access to legal orientation and justice for asylum-seekers, refugees and stateless people.
- Advocate for the implementation of the national law for the protection of stateless persons and the establishment of a statelessness determination procedure in line with the pledges made by the Government of Paraguay, including those under the 2014 Brazil Plan of Action.
- Support CONARE in their role of actively promoting a greater engagement of relevant Government institutions in the development of a comprehensive strategy towards the local integration of refugees.
- Through cooperation with the Entrepreneur Training Centre of the Ministry of Labour and Social Security, refugees and asylum-seekers with an entrepreneurial profile receive technical and training and guidance to set up individual, family or collective businesses. Semillas para la Democracia complements this initiative by awarding seed capital to entrepreneurs and offering tailored orientation Labour rights and available employment opportunities.
- Strengthen the engagement with the UN system to ensure the inclusion of forcibly displaced people in the national development plan and the UN Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework.
- Provide capacity building and training to relevant counterparts involved in the protection of refugees and stateless people.
Humanitarian Assistance, Community Empowerment and Self-Reliance

- UNHCR’s Durable Solutions Strategy aims to boost opportunities for self-reliance, integration and empowerment of forcibly displaced people and to facilitate the development of a state-owned comprehensive solutions policy. The strategy in Paraguay aims to: 1) advocate for the inclusion of strategic needs in public policies and social protection schemes; 2) create enabling conditions for decent work and wage earning; 3) enhance routes for access to financial services; and 4) promote a conducive environment for business creation.
- UNHCR, through its partner Semillas para la Democracia, supports refugees and migrants in their integration process providing legal orientation, generation of integration capacities, and economic support to access documentation, basic goods and services, so they can achieve its progressive insertion into the local economy.
- “Semillas para la Democracia” has engaged four private sector partners, as well as financial service providers, specialized civil society organizations, line ministries and other UN agencies, to strengthen economic inclusion of forcibly displaced people through access to employment, self-employment and financial inclusion.
- With its partner, UNHCR provides multipurpose cash assistance, household items, and hygiene kits in kind for the most vulnerable newly arrived refugees and migrants.
