DISCUSSION

1. Intersector linkages:
   - Identified in 2015 through discussion with other sectors.
   - Areas to be considered by food sector partners include skills training for cross cutting activities.
   - Linkages identified include:
     - In wash and education sectors: training and agriculture activities in the camps and identifying the availability of agriculture expertise for the refugees communities in the camps
     - Health sector: cross over between nutrition activities and food security particularly on training (also raised by education sector)
     - Shelter sector: food sector could provide advice on shelter design to ensure safe food preparation

Action required:
   - Food sector partners are requested to consider opportunities for connecting on specific issues with other sectors.
   - Organisations planning agriculture activities in the camps are requested to forward details to sector chair.

2. Gender Mainstreaming:
   - There is a sector gender focal point network (SGFPN), led by WFP, UNICEF, and UNHCR with representation from all sectors. Caritas will also represent the food sector.
   - SGFPN is planning to conduct training on topics such as the gender marker, M&E, advocacy, gender awareness, gender analysis and planning, gender mainstreaming, GBV guidelines.
   - FSSWG can organize separate gender trainings for FSS only or with other sectors.

Summary of discussion on gender focussed activities currently undertaken by sector members:

IRC:
   - Has just finished study on GBA and cash programme in cooperation with UNHCR
