Monthly Arrivals 2016 to 2018

↑ 67,415 ↑ 57,066 ↑ 26,971

Note – arrivals during the first months of 2016 exceeded 100,000. To better enable comparison between 2016, 2017 & 2018, the monthly arrivals chart has been truncated at 8,000.

Demographics

Similar to last year, over one-third of arrivals in 2018 are children. Of those, 7 out of 10 are below the age of 12. Additionally, 10% of all children were registered upon arrival as unaccompanied or seperated, mainly from Syria and Afghanistan. Some 35% of arrivals are men between 18 and 39 years old. Only 2% of arrivals are 50 years old or older.

Demographics (continued)

The majority of new arrivals in 2018 are from Syria (983), Iraq (835) and Afghanistan (398), thus following the trend of arrivals of the last two years. Typically, these three nationalities arrive in family groups.

Entry points

During the first two months of 2018, the majority of refugees and migrants in Greece arrive on Lesbos (1,453), Samos (830) and the Dodecanese islands (378). In February, refugees and migrants arrived on five islands. Lesbos receives the highest numbers of people from Syria and Afghanistan over the overall number of sea arrivals in Greece in 2018, whilst Chios mainly receives family groups from Syria and Iraq.
