Contextual Background

Historical background

Jewi Refugee Camp was established on 15 March 2015 and hosts refugee relocated from Leitchuor and Nip Nip following floods that left refugees in both locations homeless. This led to establishment of the camp which offered home for refugees to settle and live in safety and dignity. Leitchuor was established in late January 2014 and received refugees relocated from Ethiopian border entry points of Akobo, Pagak, Buriy, Pochalla.

Areas of Origin

The camp population comprises of refugees mainly from South Sudan’s Unity, Upper Nile and Jonglei states.

Cultural Background

The refugees are predominantly ethnic Luo-Nuer with other few minorities.

Main Occupations

Primarily farmers and pastoralists.
