

GREECE Accommodation update

Ali, an interpreter who works for ESTIA programme on Crete, is helping a family who have just arrived at their new home in Heraklion city.

Overview

By the end of March 2018, UNHCR had created 22,382 places in the accommodation scheme as part of the ESTIA programme. These were in 3,768 separate buildings, in 20 cities across Greece.

The Accommodation Scheme<sup>1</sup> provides rented housing to vulnerable asylum-seekers and refugees in Greece. Urban accommodation helps restore a sense of normalcy and provides better access to services, including education and health. People are additionally supported by social workers and interpreters who help them access medical services, employment, language courses and recreational activities.

<sup>1</sup> The scheme also facilitates the eventual integration of those who will remain in Greece, while the host population benefits from the renting of their apartments. UNHCR works with NGOs as well as a number of municipalities around Greece to provide rented accommodation in apartments, buildings, host families and hotels. The accommodation scheme commenced in Nov. 2015.
