Nadia Bashar, a 28 years old artist and painter from Iraq, hugs her older daughter in front of her paintings in the living room of their apartment.

Nadia fled Iraq together with her two daughters in late 2017. The family found a home in Trikala, in an apartment rented under the ESTIA Programme. The Municipality of Trikala, through its development agency E-TRIKALA, is one of the ten municipalities that participate in the ESTIA Programme, implemented by UNHCR with funding by the European Union.

Overview

By the end of April 2019, UNHCR had created 25,628 places in the accommodation scheme as part of the ESTIA programme. These were in 4,430 apartments and 16 buildings, in 14 cities and 6 islands across Greece.

The Accommodation Scheme¹ provides rented housing to vulnerable asylum-seekers and refugees in Greece. Urban accommodation helps restore a sense of normalcy and provides better access to services, including education and health. People are additionally supported by social workers and interpreters who help them access medical services, employment, language courses and recreational activities.
