PRM Visit

- From 20-22 of May 2019, the Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration (BPRM) of the US Department of State has visited formerly funded projects and beneficiaries together with UNHCR and partners staff (WFP, CARE and ASAPSU), Kristin Alderman, Senior Refugee Program Officer for U.S. Department of State, Russell Bernstein, Regional Refugee Coordinator for West Africa and Stephanie Burk, Political Assistant, in the regions of Tai, Guiglo, Bolequin, Toulepleu and Danane.
- It was recommended that Governmental bodies be sensitized on the importance of issuing documentation to stateless and people at risk of statelessness. Most importantly they were encouraged to facilitate the issuing of national certificates, a process which is currently long and very expensive.
- UNHCR and partners mentioned that they are and will advocate more towards the Identity for all before Judges and relevant authorities.

Workshop on CRRF and the Global Compact on Refugees

The workshop focused on the "multi-stakeholder approach" as highlighted in the New York Declaration and the Global Compact on Refugees. With a view to making a concrete contribution, making it possible to capitalize on past efforts and support the action of the various actors involved in the Ivorian situation.

The workshop also aimed at

- Sharing, information on the process and objectives of the Global Compact for Refugees;
- Contributing to a collective reflection on how work in favor of refugees and returnees in the Ivorian situation can be integrated into the dynamics of the Global Compact, including the Global Forum on Refugees;
- Strengthening the common understanding of the "multi-stakeholder approach" and its potential to generate added value in the response;
- Participating in the establishment of a multi-stakeholder platform for regular exchanges on the implementation of the Global Compact and, more broadly, set up a follow-up mechanism among workshop participants.

Participants of Governmental bodies, local and international NGOs, and Refugees attended the workshop on CRRF/GCR

Training on European Union's funding mechanism

- A three(3) days training conducted by the DRRM from 27-29 May 2019 saw the participation of UNHCR officers from Senegal, Nigeria, Mauritania, Guinea, Gambia, Cameroon, Liberia, Togo, Ghana, Senegal, DRC, Burkina Faso and host country Cote d'Ivoire. The purpose of the training was to understand the financing mechanism of the European Union and its implications for the UNHCR.
- Highlight was made on the difference between Echo and Non -Echo funding.
- Mr. Michael Laloge, Head of Cooperation of the European Union provided an insight on their process of prioritization and long-term programming in the context of their next budget cycle 2021-2027 and consultation with UN partners
