PROTECTION

Over 180 SGBV survivors were identified, assessed and 87% received psychosocial support.

Over 7,140 new arrivals came by the end of June 2019.

EDUCATION

49,685 South Sudanese children attend pre-primary, primary and secondary schools.

124 children share a classroom on average but the standard is 40 children per classroom.

580 teachers maintained and renumerated.

FOOD

Assistance provided in cash was increased from 30% to 40% of the food ration distributed.

15% of the planned food commodities could not be purchased due to funding constrains.

Corn Soya Blend (CSB+) could not be distributed to the general population in the entire year due to challenges to funding.

HEALTH AND NUTRITION

Over 1,749 hospitals deliveries constituting delivery under skilled supervision.

Universal access to health among its person of concerns achieved crude mortality of 0.2/1000/month and under five mortality of 0.8/1000/ month.

7,977 admissions in the various nutrition programs targeting children below five years, with over 90% cure rates.

LIVELIHOODS AND ENVIRONMENT

4,730 refugees received productive assets, training and business support for their livelihoods activities.

3,028 employed/self-employed, increasing household incomes to improve their livelihoods.

7.4% of individuals aged 18-59 years are engaged in livelihoods activities in Kakuma.

SHELTER AND NFIs

1,739 semi-permanent shelters have been constructed for new arrivals settled in Kakuma camp.

431 semi-permanent shelters have been converted to permanent shelters in Kalobeyei settlement.

176 shelters are still awaiting repair since initial identification in 2017.

WATER AND SANITATION

19.13 litres of water per person per day met in Kakuma, a decrease from 21.6 L/p/d.

Latrine to learner ratio increased from 1:10 to 1:16.

Low latrine coverage rate in Kakuma and Kalobeyei at 34.8% and 20.8% respectively requiring urgent redress.

---

Tayyar Sukru Casizoglu, Head of Sub-Office, cansizog@unhcr.org; Mohamed Shoman, Snr Ops Manager shoman@unhcr.org