UNHCR (The UN Refugee Agency) is a global organization that protects refugees, supports communities, and seeks durable solutions to forced displacement. They operate in Pakistan and provide various services to people including legal aid, registration, and access to healthcare. The image contains information about the services offered by UNHCR in Pakistan, contact details, and how to apply for aid.

Key points:
- UNHCR is a key partner in Pakistan's refugee resettlement efforts.
- They offer legal aid, registration, and access to healthcare.
- Services are provided to refugees and asylum seekers from various countries.
- Contact details include phone numbers and email addresses for assistance.
- The UNHCR website provides comprehensive information about their services and how to apply.