The incentive-based volunteer scheme (IBV) aimed at providing refugees living in Azraq Refugee Camp with basic means to enhance their resilience and self-reliance due to the lack of livelihood means in the camp. The Incentive-Based Volunteering Scheme (IBV) has been a key aspect of refugee participation in the delivery of humanitarian assistance and other services in the camp. The fact sheet contains information shared by different humanitarian actors engaged in the IBV scheme.

Feedbacks received from the community

- In light of the current lockdown, community members were wondering why many IBV positions haven’t been rotated recently and why some positions have been extended.
- Many community members contacted UNHCR directly asking to be considered for IBV opportunities. Cases have been prioritized and communicated to partners accordingly.
