Cash Assistance Update

Overview
In July, 89,407 eligible refugees and asylum-seekers (46,687 families) received cash assistance in Greece, in 118 locations.

UNHCR provides cash assistance in Greece, as part of the ESTIA programme, funded by the European Commission. Cash assistance restores dignity and empowers asylum-seekers and refugees who can now choose how to cover their basic needs. It also contributes directly to the economy of the host community through the purchase of services and goods. UNHCR in Greece works with the Greece Cash Alliance partners the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC), Catholic Relief Services (CRS) and METAdrasi.

Demographics of Refugees and Asylum-Seekers Assisted with Cash
Since April 2017, 185,603 eligible individuals have received cash assistance in Greece at least once. Eligibility is assessed on the basis of one’s date of entry in the country, legal status and current location.

Of the 89,407 individuals who received cash assistance this month, 5,800 have international protection in Greece. Out of 46,687 families, 22% were women, 42% men and 36% children.
