Tips for Mitigating Risks faced by Older people

1. Advocate with authorities that special provisions are made to ensure older people have access to support and basic services in any restrictions on movement or travel.

2. Identify older persons of concern that may have underlying health issues and where possible, ensure that older POCs have updated, regular information about health concerns, referral pathways and possible prioritization for treatment if they present symptoms of COVID-19 and that such information is made available in ways that is accessible and takes account of the specific needs of older persons; and
