Refugees and Asylum-seekers
As of November 30, 2021

Key indicators
- 58% individuals aged 14+ years provided with identity documents.
- 86% individuals aged 5+ years enrolled with biometrics.
- 85% of primary school-aged boys enrolled in primary education.
- 72% of primary school-aged girls enrolled in primary education.
- 38% of refugee females have a specific need, 14% of refugee males have a specific need.

New arrival trends in 2021
Total arrivals: 16,125 individuals

Demography
- Female (53%)
- Male (47%)

Nationality
- South Sudanese: 383,087
- Somali: 218,022
- Eritrean: 158,300
- Sudanese: 46,181
- Kenyan: 4,034
- Yemeni: 2,489
- Congolese (DRC): 1,039
- Syrian: 667
- Burundian: 125
- Djiboutian: 59
- Rwandan: 18
- Other: 3,050

91% in camps
7% Urban
2% in settlements

Refugee Trends

*Number of Eritrean refugees in Tigray is under verification by ARRA
The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.
Update date: 13 Dec 2021
Sources: UNHCR Registration unit
Feedback: ethadim@unhcr.org
More info at: https://data2.unhcr.org/en/country/eth

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.