

MAKANI – MY SPACE COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO MEETING CHILDREN'S NEEDS

“I am safe, I learn, I connect”

31 March 2015

627,000 Registered Syrian Refugees currently in Jordan (Mar 2015)

54% ARE CHILDREN

Of the approximately 220,000 school aged Syrian refugee children:

- 129,354 children enrolled in formal public schools (2014/15 school year) including 1,500 in KG
- 30,000 children accessing various forms of alternative education

➡ Over 60,000 children either have no access to learning out of which an estimated 15,000 are on waiting lists

➡ Lack of opportunities for adolescents and youth

➡ Persisting PSS needs (also within Jordanian communities)

WHAT IS MAKANI?

Services and activities for children and adolescents

- IT IS A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO CP EDU AND YOUTH FOR ALL VULNERABLE CHILDREN
- IT IS CENTER BASED WITH COMMUNITY OUTREACH
- IT HAS COMMON CONSISTENT STANDARDS
- USE EXISTING CP-EDU-YOUTH CENTRES TO MAXIMIZE OUTREACH
- IT LOOKS AT MAINSTREAMED SOCIAL COHESION
- PROVISION OF ONE PACKAGE (3 ELEMENTS):
PSS/REFERRALS+ALTERNATIVE EDU (informal + non formal) + LIFE SKILLS

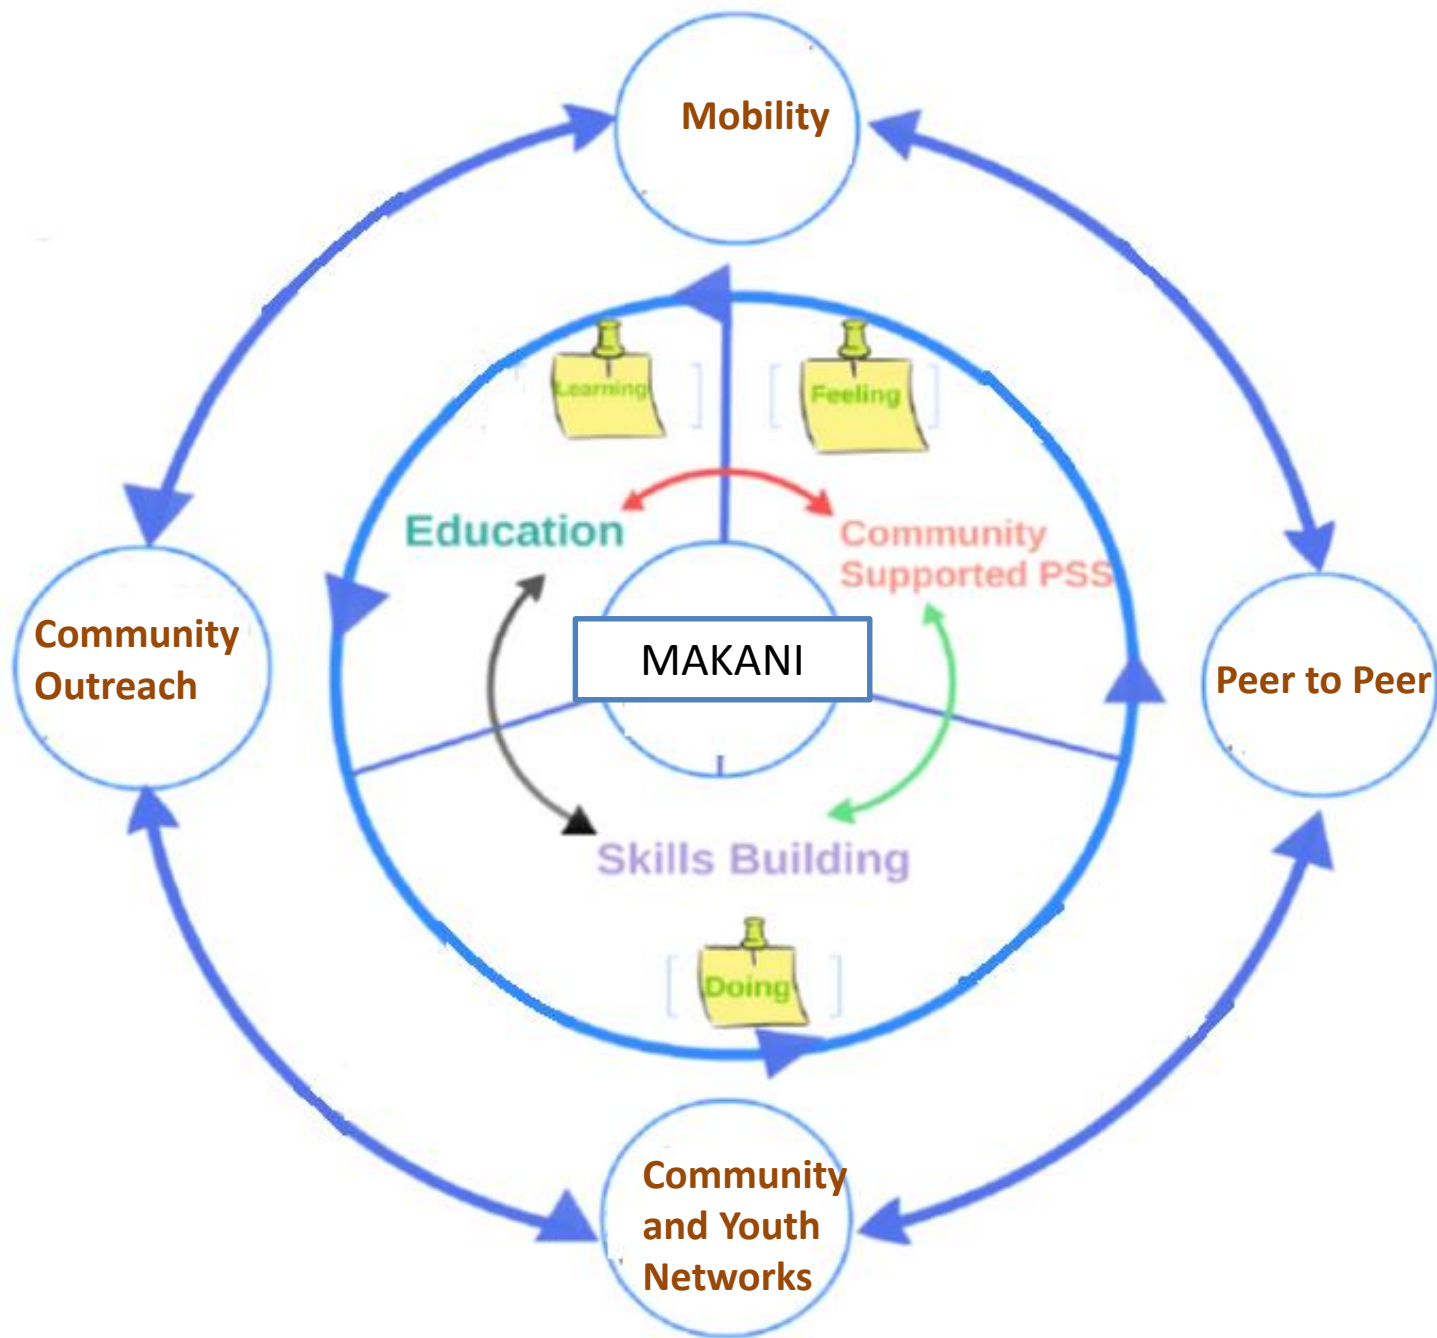

1. TO RECOGNIZE THAT CHILDREN HAVE MULTIPLE NEEDS AND TO OFFER TO OFFER A COMPREHENSIVE SET OF SERVICES IN ORDER FOR THEM TO REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL
2. TO MAXIMIZE COVERAGE THROUGH EXISTING 200+ CENTERS
3. TO ENSURE COST EFFECTIVE INTERVENTIONS

OUR COMMON TARGETS

1. 203,000 children reached with PSS
2. 16,000 children reached by CP-GBV case management
3. 90,000 children reached with alternative education
4. 58,000 10-24 years old completing life skills training

Comprehensive Approach
Child Protection/ Education/ Youth

- APPLY THE THREE COMPONENTS (PSS/Referrals; alternative education and Life skills/civic engagement)
- APPLY COMMONLY AGREED STANDARDS ON:
