625 households living in adequate shelters in the camp following refurbishment of existing shelters with local, durable materials

- 78% of refugees registered
- 126 refugee children issued with birth certificates
- 2,446 refugee aged 18+ years were the holders of an identity document
- 422 persons with special needs received adequate assistance

- 2,233 refugee and host community children enrolled in primary education
- 23 qualified teachers trained

- 317 children aged 6-59 months admitted into SAM treatment
- 514 children aged 6-59 months admitted into MAM treatment

- 518 children vaccinated against measles
- 192 PoCs living with HIV received anti-retroviral treatment

- 1,485 PoCs received production kits or inputs for agricultural/fishery activities

- 6,032 refugees received food assistance on a monthly basis including 6,175 through the cash voucher programme

- 70 drainable shared family latrines constructed
- 27 litres of potable water available per person/day

- 371 children aged 6-59 months admitted into SAM treatment
- 514 children aged 6-59 months admitted into MAM treatment

For more information, please contact: Mbill Ambaoumbe, UNHCR Representative, ambaoum@unhcr.org - Edward O'Dwyer, Deputy Representative, odwyere@unhcr.org - Moïse Inandjo, External Relations Officer, inandjo@unhcr.org