The ongoing insurgency in the North East. The conflict has caused displaced persons in the Northeast region, with 90% of the IDPs registered in Nigeria. Source: DTM -RXXXI Feb 2020.

Internally displaced population out of which 262,722 are in Northwest states of Katsina, Zamfara, Kaduna, Sokoto and Kano states while the remaining 277,327 are in Northcentral states of Benue, Plateau and Nassarawa states. Source: DTM -NCNW RII Dec 2019.

Unaccompanied and separated children: 13,641

REGISTERED IN NIGERIA

NIGERIA: POPULATION OF CONCERN SNAPSHOT

April 2020

KEY FIGURES

- 2,046,604 internally displaced population
- 540,049 internally displaced population out of which 262,722 are in Northwest states of Katsina, Zamfara, Kaduna, Sokoto and Kano states while the remaining 277,327 are in Northcentral states of Benue, Plateau and Nassarawa states.
- 156,802 Nigerian refugees in Chad
- 13,900 Nigerian refugees in Chad as of March 2020
- 114,141 Nigerian refugees in Cameroon as of March 2020
- 284,843 Nigerian refugees registered in Cameroon, Chad, and Niger
- 61,361 UNHCR and asylum seekers registered in Nigeria

Nigeria faces immense humanitarian and protection challenges due to the ongoing insurgency in the North East. The conflict has caused grave human rights violations, impacting particularly on the most vulnerable civilians. As of April 2020, there are 2,046,604 internally displaced persons in the Northeast region, with 90% of the displacements in Borno, Adamawa and Yobe states. Outside of the Northeast an estimated 540,049 people are displaced due to banditry and farmer-herders conflict. There are 61,894 registered refugees and asylum seekers as of April 2020, 60% are located in Cross Rivers, 21% in Taraba, 12% in Benue and 6% registered in Lagos which are urban refugees and asylum seekers. There are 284,843 Nigerian Refugees in neighbouring countries of Niger (55%), Cameroon (40%), and Chad (5%).

UNHCR - as of April 2020.

DISCLAIMER: The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

UPDATED: April 2020