RI – Child labor

Starting 2017 and with the shifts in operations in Zaatari camp, the CL-TF members has shirked as some of the organisations has left the camp. based on a recent survey conducted by UNICEF and IMC 1950 case was identified, yet only 950 case were verified. On that a group of organisations decided to work on CL. The campaign started later last year help a lot increasing the registration.

Currently, as the harvest season is in its peak and a lot of children are engaged in the work outside the camp mainly in the agricultural projects, RI and UNICEF met with ESWG and CPWG came up with an action plan to work – attached to the MoM.

IMC is responsible to train any interested CL worker to identify the CL cases and on who to work with them, trainings will involve how to deal with the children and the parents. In collaboration with ILO, identified cases will get the support to increase their opportunities to either access CFW or labor market with a work permit.

Early August, back to school campaign will start from MAKANI centers [12 in Zaatari], Makani workers will be oriented to identify eligible students to enroll in the formal school or to refer them to other educational programmes as RI-school dropout, or vocational training etc. The campaign will also work on increase the information sharing and the coordination among all working groups inside the camp.

Please refer to the attached CL action plan to learn more about the suggested actions.

Action Point1: Dr. Ahmad to share softcopies to be shared with the group

Action Point2: CL-TF to share upcoming training opportunities.

Finalize med-year YTF action plan review

After compiling the feedback from the action plan workshop, the additions were integrated into the document – please refer to the updated documents for review.

Most of the comments were added to the already existing objectives, but with increased relevance or with examples on the how/whom to work on. The main point discussed again in the meeting was to highlight youth projects/initiatives/success stories in the newsletter.

The group also suggested to create a YTF or youth camp related Facebook page. as the chairs understand the importance of social media and its roles into positively impacting the youth programmes, a separate meeting will be dedicated to discuss this suggestion. During that meeting social media experts should be invited to share the best practices and the risks, to inform the group decision.

Youth service mapping

A draft map was shared by UNHCR-IRD team; the feedback was asking about the possibility to include more information about the services. And to make a spate map for each category which will support the easy access to information based on the category of the service.

The team is still working on finishing all categories and looking into the possibility of adding more information.

Full product is expected to be finalized by mid-Aug.

Feedback on FGDs

Most of the organisations were able to conduct and share the FGDs finding with Raed Sawalha (co-chair), yet not all of the FGDs results were received. YTF chairs will compile all findings and share for review and recommend messages to relevant working group chairs.
